Course Summary:

This course starts by building your confidence to doodle and play with the shapes you make and builds up to drawing from still life. Each week, get inspiration from others that have drawn before you, from modern illustrators to Gond Tribal artists, to Da Vinci. Work towards producing a mindful colouring book either on your own, or combine it with others from the group. You don't need to be an experienced artist - all are welcome - so come and give it a go. You will be surprised at what you can do!
