

Course Information Sheet

Course Code and Name: GL0058382 Understanding Autism Spectrum Condition

Venue: Virtual classroom via video link

Start Date: 16 July 2024

End Date: 16 July 2024

Day: Tuesday

Time: 10:00 to 12:30

Weeks: 1

Tutor: Sara Phillips

Course Adult Education in

Provider: Gloucestershire

Course Summary:

Learn tips to improve your interactions with people on the autistic spectrum. This session will allow you to explore the topic with the use of case studies, the support of an experienced practitioner and the opportunity to speak to someone with lived experience.

Eligibility:

You must be aged 19 or over and have lived in the UK for more than 3 years to enrol. If you live outside of Gloucestershire there may be a small charge for your course. Please speak to the course coordinator for details.

How will the course be taught?

This is a remote course, delivered online via Zoom. You will need a computer/laptop/tablet or smartphone to access the course.

How will I know how well I am doing?

Your tutor will engage you with questions and give you feedback

Prior Knowledge:

None required

What do I need to bring?

Pen + paper, or device to make notes on.

How do I join the course, or find out more?

Contact megan.thoresson@gloucestershire.gov.uk

Cost:

There may be a charge if you live outside of Gloucestershire. Contact the programme coordinator for more information.

What course can I do next?

Level 2 Distance learning courses e.g Certificate in Equality and Diversity; Understanding Autism; Understanding Behaviour that Challenges; Understanding Specific Learning Difficulties

Information and Advice for Progression:

Your tutor can advise you. You can get advice and guidance from the Employment and Skills Hub
<https://www.gloucestershire.gov.uk/employment-and-skills-hub/>

Health and safety:

You will be briefed on online safety protocols at the start of the session.

Further information:

No information provided