Tutor: Richard Humphrey

Course Provider: Adult Education in Gloucestershire

Course Summary:

The programme includes 6 x 3.5 hour classroom sessions investigating the roles and responsibilities of a teacher, using inclusive teaching and learning approaches in education and training and understanding the types and methods of assessment used. Independent study is essential. You will be required to give a 15 minute micro teach; the qualification costs £600.

The Level 4 Certificate in Education and Training includes the above with additional mandatory sections on planning to meet the needs of learners, delivery and using resources. You would also have to choose one from the following options to self study: Action Research, Developing Resources or Specialist Teaching.

The programme requires you to teach for a minimum of 30 hours, 3 hours of which would be observed. Throughout the period of study, you will receive support from your tutor.

The qualification costs £1400.

Eligibility:

Learners must be over 19 at the start of the course. You should have English and maths skills at level 2 or above. In the case of those learners wishing to study for the Certificate, you will have to arrange your own teaching practice.

How will the course be taught?

There will be 6 x 3.5hour sessions with a blended learning through the Adult Education Learning Platform. There will be the opportunity for one to one sessions with the tutor.

How will I know how well I am doing?

The tutor will give you regular feedback on your progress and you will also be able to monitor your achievements online

Prior Knowledge:

Some experience of working in education and training is desirable but not essential.

What do I need to bring?

Bring yourself. It is a good idea to bring a notepad, ring binder and pens.
