Course Summary:

Level 3 Award in Education and Training

About the course

This is an introductory teaching course, for people interested in becoming a teacher or trainer in the post-16 education and skills sector. It is also suitable for people who are new to teaching, or who have to deliver teaching or training as part of their role. You may wish to earn money by teaching your hobby, skill or trade to others. This course will provide you with the practice and the confidence to do so.

Entry requirements

There are no formal entry requirements for the course. You need competent English communication skills to complete written assignments and deliver your micro-teach. You will need sufficient digital skills to manage your online portfolio. Within the profession, you need maths and English skills at Level 2 (GCSE grade 4), and we will advise you on further study, if you identify this as an area for development.

Cost - £620: Talk to us about your payment options.

Contact us: For more information, contact Megan Thoresson at megan.thoresson@gloucestershire.gov.uk, including a telephone number if possible.

Eligibility:

Learners must be over 19 at the start of the course. You should have English and maths skills at level 2 or above.

How will the course be taught?

There will be 6 x 3 hour classroom sessions in which you can build your knowledge and practice your skills. We will assess your learning via a variety of methods such as written assignments, professional discussion, reflective journalling and observation. You will also be required to do a 15 minute micro-teach. You will build your portfolio of evidence using Quads Direct, an online platform.

How will I know how well I am doing?

The tutor will give you regular feedback on your progress and you will also be able to monitor your achievements online.

Prior Knowledge:

Some experience of working in education and training is helpful but not essential. This is a knowledge-based course, with no practical experience necessary. Suitable for those wishing to discover more about working in further education.

What do I need to bring?

Pens, paper, a folder in which to organise your work. You are welcome to bring a laptop, tablet or smartphone.

How do I join the course, or find out more?

If you are interested in this course please contact us by telephone on 01452 582800 or email learn@gloucestershire.gov.uk.

Cost:

£620 with payment options available to spread the cost. This course is not part of the free Level 3 offer.

What course can I do next?

You could do the Level 4 Certificate in Education and Training.

Information and Advice for Progression:
