Course Summary:

This class is for people who come from outside the UK, who write very little English. You will practise reading and writing in English with friends, neighbours and other people in your life: to write and talk about your day, shopping, free time, travel and health. You will be able to build your reading skills through frequent reading practice, both at home and in the class.

Eligibility:

Learners must be over 19 on the 31st August of the academic year they start their learning. Note: if not ordinarily resident in UK for 3 years (Please speak to a member of staff to confirm eligibility for funding).

How will the course be taught?

This course is delivered by a professionally qualified tutor. There will be a mixture of group, paired and individual work. You will also receive homework tasks each week.

How will I know how well I am doing?

You will receive written feedback in your learning log each week along with having your work marked and verbal feedback during the sessions.

Prior Knowledge:

This class is for people who write no English at all/only a few words/letters who need to learn to read and write in English. You will do an assessment at the start of the course to find out what level you are currently working towards.

What do I need to bring?

Bring yourself. It is a good idea to bring a notepad, ring binder and pens.
